Dear Miss Hage;

Although I know that you are going to be very busy during the meeting at Waterloo, I am going to take the liberty to ask you to give me some of your time. I would appreciate it if you can give me a few minutes to discuss general set-up of county libraries with you. There ^{are} some of your organization plans which we can not follow, but the general principals should be the same as well as all the county libraries organizing in the future in this state. Perhaps we can meet in one of our rooms at a time which will be most convenient to you. This will have to take the place of a County Librarians section of the State Library Association.

Miss Butler tells me that you are interested in seeing our new Bookmobile, and wondered if it would be at Waterloo. Contrary to this I received a telephone call from the salesman yesterday, who said that they had never received the chassis and therefore nothing had been done toward building the Body. Goodness only knows when we will get it. I have bought myself a car and am going to try to get around to the rural schools and ^{as} much more as I can do. Although we now have only a little more than a thousand books, it hurts me to see them just sitting on our shelves. The Bookmobile salesman will be at Waterloo with blue prints and no doubt plenty of information for you.

My plans are to get into Waterloo on Thursday and stay until Sunday. I have a room at Hotel Russell Lamson.

Sincerely

Agnes J. Buskirk

Librarian, Woodbury County Library

Dear Miss Buskirk:

Your letter came this morning and I am very glad to have it. I surely do want to have a good long talk with you during convention. I guess we are the County Library Section of ILL so far! I, too, have a room at the Russell Lamson; however, I shall be sharing it with one of the staff of the Davenport Public Library, so perhaps if you have a single, your room will be the better place to meet. We plan to arrive Thursday morning and stay through Sunday's meetings, so there should be plenty of opportunity for us to get together. I'm looking forward to it!

Sincerely,

Elizabeth B. Hage
